

U.S. News & World Report Names Best Nursing Homes & Short-Stay Rehabilitation

Eight Altercare Centers Are Acclaimed as the Best

Washington, D.C. – November 2018 – U.S. News & World Report, a leading expert in the evaluation and rating of health care providers across the country, identified the Best Nursing Homes and Short-Stay Rehabilitation Centers for 2018-19. U.S. News evaluated 15,317 care centers nationwide, across each state and in 100 major metropolitan areas.

"Every year we strive to improve upon the information we offer to caregivers making critical health care decisions for their loved ones," says Ben Harder, Chief of Health Analysis at U.S. News. "We understand that nurse staffing is among the most important predictors of nursing home quality. With our new methodology and Short-Stay Rehabilitation rating, we have taken several steps to ensure that nursing homes that consistently provide high quality care to residents are highlighted."

"At Altercare, our superior clinical outcomes result in successful healing and are enhanced by our team culture of compassion and kindness," states Lisa Werstler, EVP Business Development. "We are grateful for this recognition that distinguishes Altercare among our peers."
